RATES UNFAIR TO VIRGINIA CITIES

resentatives in Washington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington. January 21.—Trafflo Manager Goodman, of the Richmond Chumber of Commerce, with delegations representing similar organizations from Norfolk, Potsmouth and Petersburg, came to Washington to-day and held a conference with Senators Martin and Swanson, and Congressmen Holland, Watson, and Montague, the three latter representing the three congressional districts vitally effected by present alleged unfair railroad rates.

The conference was held in the office of Senator Martin at the Capitol, and continued for about an hour. At its conclusion, when the Virginia Congressmen were asked for a statement of what took place. The Times-Dispatch correspondent was told that the question discussed was the North Carolina rate case. There is much that depends upon the attitude of the roads in fixing an 'intrastate' rate, and of an 'interstate' character, it was said, and it was to go over the matter with the Senators and the Representatives, and to outline a policy of action hereafter, that the conference was held.

While the present North Carolinia situation is unsatisfactory to Virginia cities, which claim that they are being discriminated against, the words of Senator Martin to-day's conference was simply to discuss what might properly be done towards securing for the Virginia cities mentioned a more equitable and a fairer freight rate bases hereafter.

It is probable that another conference will be held at an early date.

SHOP FORCE IS CUT.

SHOP FORCE IS CUT.

Men Are Put on Basis of Four Days & Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Roanoke, Va., January 21.—An order for stamporary reduction of the force at the Norgifolk and Western shops in all branches has been published, and from to-day the men, will work four days a week, or a total of thirty-two hours a week.

According to the statement issued by Superintendent. W. H. Lewis, of the motive, power department, the temporary reduction of 29 per cent on a basis of time and force, was explained as being effective until Fobruary 1.

At this time practically 2,500 men are employed in the shops, and the wage scale is from 18 to 60 cents an hour. It was reported that 300 men would be laid off, but due to an agreement reached between all of the departments no one will be actually cut off, since those affected will be given four days a week. The arrangement is one that is said to be acceptable to the men in all of the departments.

It is said that the situation at the shops will reach a normal state by February 1.
